Demand and Supply of Telephones in Rajast'han

4514. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have ch alked out any programme to expand further its telephone network, with the object of providing telephones al most on demand by the end of 1995-96 in Rajasthan, particularly in Jai pur city to applicants who got regis tered for supply of telephones in 1991-92, category-wise;

(b) if so, what is the present de mand and supply position, as on the 31st March, 1995 from 1991-92, year-wise onwards indicating reasons for backlog, if any, for the cities of Rajasthan, City-wise particularly in Jaipur, with total number of register ed people for supply and the mdm-ber of those on waiting list;

(c) how many inter-exchange junc tions are on reliable digital media like microwave and optical Fibre Sys tems, indicating further introduction of SDH (State of the art Synchronous Dpital Hierarchy) system like Delhi for improving reliability of transmis sion in Jaipur; and

(d) how many digital ehctronic exchanges are at present in existence as on the 31st March, 1995 and what is the future programme of expansion with an equipped capacity of required lines?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNI CATIONS (SHRI SUKH RAM): (a) No, Sir. However, the National Telecom Policy, 1994 envisages to provide telephone connections on demand by 1997. Expansion of telephone network in Rajasthan including Jaipur is being planned accordingly.

(b) The demand and supply position of telephones in Rajasthan and that of Jaipur City is as per annexed Statement. (See below). Reason for backlog was primarily limited availability of resources.

(c) In Jaipur City. 2580 inter-exchange junctions are on reliable digital media. There is no plan at-present for introduction of SDH (Synchronous Digital Hierarchy) system in Jaipur.

(d) Total 1367 digital electronic exchanges are in existance in Rajasthan as on 31-3-95. As per the development plan 153600 lines are to be added to the equipped capacity during 1995-96.
